Founded by Margaret Thatcher in 2009 as the intellectual hub of European Conservatism, New Direction has established academic networks across Europe and research partnerships throughout the world.

New Direction

As President of New Direction, the foundation for European Reform, the official foundation of the European Conservatives and Reformists Party, I am hugely proud of the work that we have achieved.

The world is currently in a period of radical realignment, and the time for an honest discussion about the future of Europe – our shared home – is now. With numerous events, reports, and the release of new online content, we are shaping the discussion both inside and outside of the European Union.

At the same time, we have been working tirelessly to expand our network of centre-right think tanks, foundations, and academic organisations, bringing together groups from across the full spectrum of belief, and from every corner of the world. Equally we are working to support the growth of new and emerging players on the marketplace of ideas – to further spread our shared values of freedom, sovereignty, and respect for traditional values.

I would like to as always pay tribute to the work of New Directions Boards: Rafaele Fitto (Italy), Karol Karski (Poland), Valdemar Tomaševski (Lithuania), Mazaly Aguilar (Spain), Roberts Zīle (Latvia), Angel Dzhambazki (Bulgaria), Geoffrey Van Orden (United Kingdom), Rob Roos (The Netherlands), Marko Milanović Litre (Croatia), and Antonio Giordano (Italy). And as always, I would like to thank the President of the ECR Party, Giorgia Meloni, for her continued trust in us.

On behalf of New Direction I thank you for you continued trust, support, and contributions. Our foundation is helping to build the intellectual framework to help build a popular conservative movement in Europe, and we hope that you will join us as we continue to work towards our goals.

Yours truly,

Tomasz PORĘBA
